

Welcome to designwell's September 2015 edition of lunchbreak. Things have been moving quickly these last few months with new projects in the pipeline, older projects nearing completion, and the most recent AILA awards.

If you have anything you would like to share with us or have a project we could help you with, please send us an email admin@designwell.net.au or give us a call on 1300 700 413.

Visit and Like our Facebook page

DesignWELL Landscape Architects

PROJECT NEWS

- Resthaven Marion, one of DesignWELL's recent projects has recently been completed.
- Salisbury East High school has also recently been completed with final checks being underway.
- We have just submitted our tender for construction for St. Peters Childcare.
- We will be beginning work on Resthaven Malvern.

NEWS

Tara has recently been working closely with Channel 9 for an educational episode of 'In the Garden with Kim Syrus'.

For those unaware, 'In the Garden' is a South Australian TV program showcasing the best 'green' stories the state has to tell. Tara will be featured in the episode airing Sunday, 11th of October at 4:30pm where she talks with Kim about all things therapeutic design and horticulture therapy. This episode is set in the newly award winning Mary Potter Healing Garden and is sure to provide an insight into the world of therapeutic design.

AWARDS

DesignWELL have claimed a victory in the most recent AILA awards, receiving the People's Choice Award for their work on Mary Potter Hospice Healing Garden! It was a neck and neck race with runners up WAX Design's Suneden Sensory Playspace. DesignWELL would like to congratulate all winners and entrants on their great work.

